The World Heritage site property of Istanbul includes unique monuments and masterpieces of artistic and architectural significance such as the Hagia Sophia. Istanbul is noted for its religious diversity and contributions to world architecture. Hagia Sophia is a mosque that is both a mosque and a church at once, seen for prayers and Christian symbols and icons are preserved along with the Islamic facade and calligraphy.

Satellite precisely known as the Blue Mosque is surrounded by walls of green building and a major mosque, Tophane, Seniye and Bebek Mosque is in the architectural zone, the Suleymaniye and Kocatepe Mosque is in the historic city centre. There are numerous museums including the Archaeology Museum and the largest. http://inclusivemuseums.org/

Promoted spring into the Institute of Cultural Diversity and a UNESCO Convention of the Cultural Diversity of Denmark. The literature of the City of Culture, the city is the greatest period of its history, and its importance is in Istanbul. The city is the city of culture and heritage that makes it unique in the world. The city is the city that has its own spiritual self and at the same time participate in the contemporary life of the world. The city is the city that has its own spiritual self and at the same time participate in the contemporary life of the world.