03 THINGS TO DO TODAY

Learn why heritage matters

In this webinar, examine how the current Covid-19 crisis is impacting the arts and culture space, as well as the heritage and tourism sectors. To commemorate World Heritage Day, and understand the future better, experts will explore questions such as “What is the best way forward for governments to make interventions with immediate and long-term impacts?”; “How best can civil society engage?”; and other pertinent questions around the subject. Today, 2 pm. To register, visit: bit.ly/3aaU0g7

Catch a Shakespearean tragedy

Watching one of the Bard’s greatest works on the stage — produced by Shakespeare’s Globe — is a dream for many theatre fans. Well, since that isn’t happening anytime soon, the good folks at Shakespeare’s Globe is offering six plays — all for free — on their YouTube channel. The only caveat is that it will be on one at a time, on a rotation of two weeks. This weekend, watch the 2018 adaptation of Hamlet, a production whose casting was gender-blind, with artistic director Michelle Terry playing the lead. Hamlet is on till April 19.

Enjoy live music

Now in its fourth week, the #SOCIALIndoors series has featured quite a few stellar acts from the indie scene, including Ankur Tewari and Dhruv Visvanath. This evening, chill out to tunes by singer-songwriter Ramya Pothuri, who recently released breezy singles such as “It’s Not Worth It” and “Do You Care?” (with Trodd). The show will be held at 5 pm today, on www.facebook.com/ScialOffline as well as @SocialOffline on Instagram
